Challenging content marketing internship in growing software company, Princh!

Are you a talented online marketing specialist with a flair for content creation and distribution? Do you want to get hands-on learning experience on how online marketing is playing a definitive role in developing a high-potential business from the ground-up? Are you ready to emerge yourself in a demanding and highly skill-building position?

If your answer to the above questions is a clear “YES”, then you might be the person we’re looking for to join our ambitious team as a full-time intern.

Briefly about us:
Princh is a software company in the sharing economy space with an innovative solution for cloud printing. We’re active across most of Northern Europe and USA - and we’re just getting started! We are an international team funded by a Danish investment company and private investor striving to reach our vision: To kill the home printer!

The tasks you’ll be involved in:
Your main areas of responsibility will be within driving brand awareness and exposure. As such, you’ll be participating in research, curation and development of content (e.g. case studies, videos, infographics, articles etc.), identifying opportunities for content promotion on different channels and with different partners and other inbound marketing efforts. We also welcome your input in other areas where you might be able to add value.

What we ask of you:
You are excited about creating engaging content for our core audience of highly-educated professionals and you love constantly bringing new ideas to the table. You can work independently and create and prioritize tasks across projects.

Previous experience in copywriting and content curation is an advantage but not a must. You also have a good understanding of how users engage with social media platforms.

All communication will be in English and you should master the language in written form as close to native level as possible.

What we offer:
We offer you a unique chance to learn firsthand what it’s like to develop a SaaS start-up from the ground up.

You’ll be an equal and respected member of our team. We promise you a steep learning curve where you can and will be involved in as many aspects of the business as you can manage.

Timing: The internship period lasts at least three months. The internship period can be discussed further if you are the selected candidate. The start date for the internship is August 10, 2020.

Application deadline: No later than July 10, 2020.

If the above sounds interesting, don’t hesitate to send your application and CV to Marc Lapointe (marc@princh.com) as soon as possible. If you have any questions about the position, feel free to contact Marc by phone: +45 53534307.

We look forward to hearing from you!
