Love this app! So helpful during this pandemic. I had to print out a medical questionnaire and I don't have a computer with a printer so I sent this to my library and they are printing it out and I can pick it up anytime today. Thank you princ!

I use this app at least two times a day to get postal printouts to ship items via internet sales. It's so much easier to use the mobile than it is to log-in on the computer. It's so easy a kid can do it. I've never had one problem, thank you.

The Princh administration panel is your tool to manage and monitor all printing through Princh

A screenshot of the Princh administration panel sign-in page. The page has a white background with a light blue border. At the top center is the Princh logo, which consists of a blue circular icon with a stylized 'p' followed by the word 'rinch' in a blue sans-serif font. Below the logo is the text 'Sign in' in a dark grey sans-serif font. Underneath is a form with two input fields. The first field is labeled '*EMAIL:' in a small, dark grey font. The input field is white with a thin grey border and a small grey icon with three dots on the right side. The second field is labeled '*PASSWORD:' in a small, dark grey font. The input field is white with a thin grey border and a small grey icon with three dots on the right side. Below the password field is a blue rectangular button with the text 'Sign in' in white. At the bottom of the form is a link that says 'New user or forgot password click here.' in a small, blue font.

The Admin Panel allows staff to manage all printing from all devices

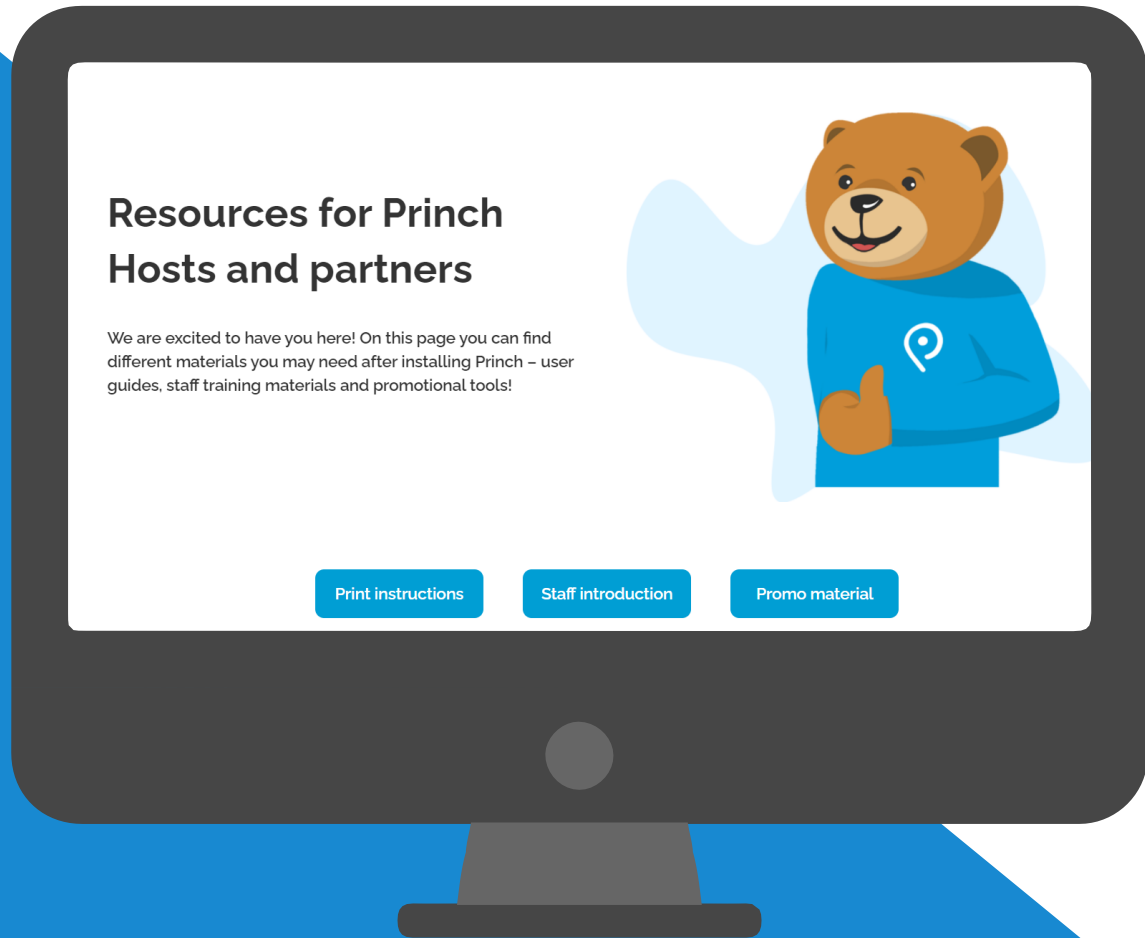

- Change prices and settings based on what your specific library offers
- Individual staff logins with different levels of access available
- Staff can resend print jobs within 1 hour without charging the user again
- Cancel payment option to refund payment within 72 hours
- Release print jobs for cash payments
